Rakuten Medical

Tiffany Piecewicz

General Counsel & Corporate Secretary, Rakuten Medical, Inc.

As General Counsel & Corporate Secretary at Rakuten Medical, Tiffany leads all aspects of the company's global legal operations, including corporate governance, intellectual property, compliance and strategic advisory functions. She develops and executes legal strategies that support business growth and enhance corporate value.

Tiffany joined Rakuten Medical in 2019, was appointed Head of Corporate Legal Affairs in 2020 and became General Counsel in 2024. She has played a pivotal role in Rakuten Medical's financing rounds and global partnership agreements, safeguarding the company's legal position while helping advance the Alluminox® platform and support business expansion. With more than 20 years of legal experience in cross-functional strategic and analytical roles, Tiffany is recognized for her integrity, leadership, and commitment as a trusted legal partner.

Prior to joining Rakuten Medical, Tiffany practiced law in New York state, working on long-term, high-profile product liability and intellectual property litigation for multiple pharmaceutical products. She has demonstrated expertise in corporate governance, contractual disputes, securities fraud, risk mitigation, internal investigations, inventorship rights, and strategic planning.

Tiffany holds a B.A. in International Relations and German from Johns Hopkins University and a J.D. from the University of Iowa College of Law.
